GROGER ASSAULTED BY TWO NEGROES

Nathan Wolk Is Seriously Wounded and Robbed of Fifty Dollars.

Nathan Wolk, who conducts a grocery at Sherman avenue and Barry place, was assaulted last night about 10:30 o'clock by two colored men, robbed of $50 and left in the store seriously wounded. Charles Lewis, colored, occupant of a flat over the store, heard the commotion on the lower floor, went to inquire what the trouble was about and was told by one of the robbers that the grocer had assaulted his companion. Police think it was due to Lewis' timely arrival that Wolk's life was spared.

Wolk was struck on the head with a cleaver and his skull may be fractured. He received two fractures of the left arm and numerous cuts and bruises. Physicians at Garfield Hospital said his condition was so serious that they did not want the police to do much, talking to him. He did not lose consciousness, however, and his recovery is expected.

Asked for Pork Chops.
When the two men entered the store they asked for a pound of pork chops, and when the grocer had cut the chops and wrapped them the men walked just outside the front door, conversed a few minutes and returned.

"Make it two pounds," one of them said, but before Wolk could cut the chops the men grabbed him and the other made for the contents of the cash register.

In an effort to protect his cash and himself, the grocer participated in a desperate struggle with one of his assailants, and it was the noise of overturning boxes that attracted Lewis from his apartment to the store.

When Lewis reached the front of the store the robbers were cowering, and the other colored man, who had reached the sidewalk, said to Lewis: "See that grocer trying to kill that colored man." Wolk and his assailant parted about that time and the colored man hastily left the store, joined his companion and disappeared.

Gave Description of Bobbers.
Policeman Nealon of the eighth precinct took charge of the wounded man and hurried him to Garfield Hospital. He was able to tell the story of his exciting experience and give descriptions of the men.

Wolk is the third merchant who has been assaulted and robbed during the past three weeks. Henry Eberbach, music dealer at 808 H street, was badly wounded by two colored assailants the night of October 17 and robbed of $150, while George E. Dwyer, a grocer at 21st and H streets, was beaten last Saturday night and robbed of $200.

Police do not blame the same negroes for the three robberies.

WAIT IN LINES IN BERLIN TO BUY LIMITED COAL

People Must Pay 12 Cents for an Egg and $2 Per Pound for Sausage During November.

COPENHAGEN, November 2.—According to the reports of Berlin many residents of that city are shivering in unheated homes, owing to their inability to obtain even the scanty allowance of a quarter of a ton of coal per room. Full delivery was promised by November 1, but now the only hope expressed is that it may all be delivered by the new year.

Lines of persons waiting to purchase coal are now a regular feature of life in Berlin. Buyers are compelled to stand in line all day to obtain a few scoopsful, which they have to carry home themselves. To the scanty and miserably shod women and children of the poor this is a severe strain.

The Berliner's one storage egg, which is a three-week allowance, will cost him 12 cents in November. The authorities advise that it be eaten quickly. A retail price of $2 a pound has been fixed for sausages made of livers from chicken and game.

MILK FOR RUSSIAN BABIES.
Red Cross to Ship Million Pounds, to Be Followed by More.

Owing to the great scarcity of whole-some milk in Russia, the American Red Cross has bought a million pounds of condensed milk for the babies in that country. Shipments will be made immediately.

Reports from the American Red Cross commission to Russia say nothing could be more heartening to many of the Russian people at the present time than providing nourishment for their babies. Another million pounds, therefore, is to be shipped next month, and it is probable that further supplies will be made, to the limit of transportation facilities.

In subsequent shipments each can of condensed milk will bear a label in Russian, reading: "From Free America to Free Russia."

The Russian government has arranged to release cars from war service to carry the milk to distributing centers.

Sidelights on the War
—BY—
OLIVER OWEN KUHN.

Lord Rhonda, food controller of England, begins his day's work before he rises in the morning.

It is a joke on the western front that the Scottish soldier would rather have snuff than ammunition, and that he charges his nose as he charges the enemy. He smokes, but he always takes snuff.

Premier Lloyd George of England frequently sits up all night deliberating on some momentous question of the hour.

Not one of the great German composers was a Prussian. Bach was a Thuringian, Handel a Saxon, Gluck and Mozart, Bavarians; Haydn, Weber and Schubert were Austrians. Beethoven was born in Bonn of Flemish descent, and Mendelssohn was a Jew.

After President Poincare had been elected a great public reception to officialdom was held. His mother came to congratulate him and, after kissing and patting his cheek, she said, that all might bear:

"Raymond, I hope that you have not undertaken too difficult a job. You never were quite so clever as you thought yourself, you know."

ALLIES NOT EQUIPPED TO UTILIZE CORN BREAD

Food Administration Explains Why It Is Necessary to Send Wheat.

Reasons why American corn, potato, flour and other foodstuffs, which Herbert Hoover asks be substituted for wheat, are not shipped to the allies so that they may make the substitution, thereby making it unnecessary for the people of this country to reduce their wheat consumption, are given in a statement issued by the food administration today. The question had been raised by many persons in connection with the signing of food conservation pledge cards.

In answering this objection attention is called to the fact that European nations are already using from 20 to 50 per cent of corn, potato and other adulterants in the manufacture of their daily bread. The British government, the statement adds, requires a 20 per cent adulteration in all wheat bread, and will permit a maximum of 50 per cent. Adulteration beyond 50 per cent, it has been found, does not make a palatable loaf.

In the case of corn, it is pointed out that this commodity in the form of meal cannot be used as a substitute, it would spoil in transit. As to the whole grain, there is the objection that the people on the other side have no mills in which to grind it. Furthermore, corn bread cannot be baked successfully in bakeries, on which European people depend almost exclusively for their bread. In addition, it does not keep well, and with the dearth of paper in Europe it would be difficult for purchasers to carry it home.

JAMES A. MAHONY, ACTOR, DIES IN NEW YORK CITY

Former Resident of Washington, Where He Gained Early Stage Experience.

James A. Mahony, well known character actor and formerly of Washington, died last Saturday in New York. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery, Brooklyn.

Mr. Mahony served an apprenticeship in the Star composing rooms in the '80s and quit the printing trade to take up theatrical life. He was an active member of the famous Lawrence Barrett Dramatic Club of this city and impersonated with much dramatic ability the role of Julius Caesar when the Shakespearean play was given by that organization.

Mr. Mahony began his professional career with Lotta and at once forged to the front as a leading man, supporting Lotta in that capacity for a number of years. He was afterward associated with Stafford, the Kentucky tragedian.

He was the oldest brother of Felix Mahony of this city.

Get a Pair Today And Be Shoe-Happy

There's no comfort like shoe comfort. How one clings to an old shoe! We part with it as reluctantly as we do a good friend.

We specialize on comfort. You can't get a better fitting or more comfortable shoe than Hanovers at any price.

Thousands of Hanover wearers will corroborate this statement. Ask any of them. Indeed, many say they would not give the comfort Hanovers afford for twice the price.

Hanovers fit like custom-made shoes. They feel comfortable when new and require no "breaking in." This is due to our last, patterns, materials and process of making.

There's a feeling of genuine comfort and satisfaction in Hanovers that you don't get in any other shoe. If you once experience it you'll be shoe-happy ever afterward.

BURIED IN A VAULT UNDER P. E. CHAPEL

Body of the Late Henry Vaughan, Architect, Is Interred With Ceremony.

In the presence of a distinguished gathering of Washingtonians, Bostonians and others who came here from England to attend the ceremony, the body of the late Henry Vaughan, noted British cathedral authority and Boston architect during recent years, who designed the National Episcopal Cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul, now being erected at Mount St. Alban, Washington, was buried yesterday afternoon in the vault beneath the Bethlehem Chapel of the cathedral.

Mr. Vaughan died in June at Boston. He was the designer of three of the chapels of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York, as well as other large and important church works here and abroad. He finished the designs for the National Episcopal Cathedral before his death and they will be carried out according to his instructions.

Mr. Vaughan was a pupil of Sir Gilbert Scott of England, the noted cathedral authority, and was afterward associated with Dr. George F. Bodley, famous English exponent of Gothic architecture.

Mr. Vaughan, who was seventy-two years old, came to this country some years ago. He held degrees from Yale, Bowdoin and other universities. He designed the library of Bowdoin College, the chapel of Groton and other similar works.

Participants in the Ceremony.
The ceremony yesterday was conducted by Bishop Alfred Harding, assisted by Dean Bratenahl, Canon De Vries and other members of the clergy of the cathedral.

The following lay trustees of the cathedral were in the procession: Charles C. Glover, Brig. Gen. John M. Wilson, U. S. A., retired; George Truandell, Charles J. Bell, Thomas Hyde, Dr. William C. Reeves, Archibald D. Russell and former Ambassador Henry White, as well as the following cleric trustees: Bishop Harding, Very Rev. G. F. C. Bratenahl, dean of the cathedral; Canon W. L. De Vries, Canon E. F. Williams, Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim and Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith.

Mr. Vaughan is survived by three sisters, who reside in England, and by a brother, William Steins Vaughan of Northumberland, England, the latter having been present at the interment ceremonies as the representative of the family.

CAMPS CONSERVING FUEL.
Doing Their Share in Saving Wood Near Cantonments.

The thirty-one National Army, and National Guard camps are doing their share in conserving fuel, according to a report made by Brig. Gen. I. W. Little of the Quartermaster Corps to Dr. Harry A. Garfield, United States fuel administrator. Reports that large amounts of fire wood was being burned around the new cantonments to get rid of it were investigated at Dr. Garfield's request, but such fires, it has been learned, were only to clear away stumps, brush and trash not available for fuel.

The War Department has ordered that all wood found near the cantonments that is in the least suitable for fuel be preserved for camp use this winter.

WAR TAX ON CLUB DUES.

Escape Levy Where They Have Been Paid in Advance.

If a man had paid his club dues, no matter for how long a term ahead, before November 1, he escapes the tax of 10 per cent imposed by the war revenue act. If he was in arrears on that date, and paid up subsequently, that payment must carry the tax.

The law imposes the tax on payments of dues after November 1. In an interpretation by Daniel C. Roper, "the taxes required under section 701 occur when payments are made to the treasurer of your club."

Elaborating this, Commissioner Roper holds: "The tax is upon the entire payment made subsequent to November 1, 1917, irrespective of the term covered by such payment. If your club dues have been paid in advance prior to November 1, 1917, and received for by the treasurer of the club, no tax will rest thereon, irrespective of the time covered by such payment."
